

Adherence to the ICOM Code of Ethics for Museums

According to Article 4 of the ICOM's Statutes, all persons wishing to become members of ICOM "shall indicate [...] that they accept and will comply with the ICOM Code of Ethics for Museums". In addition, membership in ICOM shall not be available to any person or institution (including its employees) which trades (buys or sells for profit) cultural property including works of art, natural and scientific specimens, taking into consideration national legislations and international conventions.

The following statement is mandatory and must be completed by all members of ICOM, current and new members.

Anyone failing to fill it could see its membership / renewal refused.

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

I,, hereby declare that I formally accept and respect the ICOM Code of Ethics for Museums. I am not engaged in dealing (i.e. buying and selling for profit) cultural goods including works of art or natural and scientific specimens.

Date :

Signature :

INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERS

I,, hereby declare that my institution formally accepts and respects the ICOM Code of Ethics for Museums. It is not engaged in dealing (i.e. buying and selling for profit) cultural goods including works of art or natural and scientific specimens.

Date :

Signature :

Note: This declaration of adherence to the ICOM Code of Ethics for Museums should be kept by National Committees.